Trewince Farm Touring

“A truly memorable
part of Cornwall”

About us

Trewince Farm Touring is a family run, AA 3 Pennant rated park sited on a working farm that has been occupied by the Symons family for five generations.

View to St. Mawes from Trewince

What we offer

The small site offers pitches for caravans, tents and campervans and has spectacular coastal and rural views from its elevated position.

Facilities include electric hook-ups, free showers and toilets, laundry equipment, dish washing and ice pack facilities.

Pets are welcome for a small fee provided they are kept under strict control.

Where we are

The Farm and touring park is situated on the Roseland Peninsula, which is on the South coast of Cornwall within an area of outstanding natural beauty.

The Villages of St. Mawes, Gerrans and Portscatho are minutes away. Falmouth, St. Austell and the Eden Project are a short journey away as is the City of Truro.

Directions

M5 to Exeter
Take the A30 from Exeter to Cornwall.
Leave the A30 at Innis Downs. At roundabout, take 1st exit onto A391 to St. Austell.
From St Austell take the A390 towards Truro.
Bear left on the B3287 to Tregony.
From Tregony follow the signs for St Mawes for 7 miles to Trewithian.
Turn left at the sign for Gerrans, Portscatho, Trewince Manor etc.
Stay on this road, following signs for St Anthony, to Trewince Farm one mile beyond Gerrans village.

View across Gerrans Bay from farm entrance

Local facilities

Safe beaches, sailing and the South West Coast Path are all a few minutes walk away as are local shops, pubs, restaurants and cafes which offer good food and friendly atmosphere.

Caravan and boat storage is also available.
