Trewince Farm Touring Park

“A truly memorable
part of Cornwall”

About us

Trewince Farm Touring is a family run, AA 3 Pennant rated park sited on a working farm that has been occupied by the Symons family for five generations.

View to St. Mawes from Trewince

What we offer

The small site offers pitches for caravans, tents and campervans and has spectacular coastal and rural views from its elevated position.

Facilities include electric hook-ups, free showers and toilets, laundry equipment, freezers and a small shop selling daily essentials such as milk, eggs and bread etc during peak season.

Walks and horse riding are on site.

Pets are welcome for a small fee provided they are kept under strict control.

Where we are

The Farm and touring park is situated on the Roseland Peninsula, which is on the South coast of Cornwall within an area of outstanding natural beauty.

The Villages of St. Mawes, Gerrans and Portscatho are minutes away. Falmouth, St. Austell and the Eden Project are a short journey away as is the City of Truro.

Directions
